There are a myriad of strange stories to have come out of the warring in the Middle East concerning a range of strange creatures sighted and confronted by troops that defy explanation and run the gamut from the odd to the downright bizarre. One curious report was mentioned in the book Phantoms & Monsters: Strange Encounters, by Lon Strickler. The account concerns a witness who worked for several years in Iraq and Afghanistan from 2004-2009 with the U.S. Army Criminal Investigations (CID ...
