Each of us experiences shame. "[I]t is part of our human condition," writes author and therapist Darlene Lancer, LMFT, in Conquering Shame and Codependency: 8 Steps to Freeing the True You.

Overcoming Shame to Connect with Your True Self

3. Work through your past Since so much of being codependent comes from your past, you'll need to work through it. This is something most people don't want to do. Being codependent often comes with that sense of denial. We don't want to be codependent, so we think by ignoring it, it'll go away. But, that's not true.
