On AQA they say, for private candidates doing GCSE, it's mandatory finding a centre that provides controlled assessment. On Edexcel it doesn't mention this controlled assessment as necessary for private candidates. And what is meant for controlled assessment exactly? BTW I found several Edexcel centres that offer the controlled assessments.

The Unexamined Life: AQA, Edexcel, OCR and the Covid Furlough Scam. Editor. Emmett Street. Simon Jenkins recent piece in Thursday's Guardian is worth reading. Jenkins, a right-wing commentator, also happens to be one of the few genuine journalists left on that particular paper. In this rather bizarre piece, he opines that the cancellation of this year's GCSE's and A level exams provides a template for future educational policy.
