The saga of Argus the Werewolf Spanker continues! Newly transformed Renley's life has been turned upside down. Ravaged by a werewolf months ago, he's now getting accustomed to being a lycanthope himself. Even stranger, he travels with the hunter who—of all things—spanks such beasts in order to tame them.

Clash of Alphas (Argus the Werewolf Spanker, #2) by S.G. Croup

Argus is a werewolf hunter, but not the traditional kind. Whereas other hunters favor various silver weapons, stakes, mercury-tipped arrowheads, poison mistletoe, wolfsbane, and the application of fire, Argus takes a different tack. Why kill a werewolf when you can subdue him? Werewolves are big, beautiful creatures, for all their snarling savagery.

With the werewolf positioned properly, Argus took out his silver paddle from its holster at his side and laid it across the twin mounds. Little more than a rounded rectangular slab of metal with a covered handle and holes drilled into its business end, the werewolf nonetheless hissed at just the mere touch of polished silver on its backside.
