Continued Treatment for Your Cat's Scratching, Licking, and Chewing. Eliminating parasites. Because it can be difficult to diagnose flea infestation in cats, some veterinarians recommend trying reliable flea control products purchased from a veterinary office for six to eight weeks to see if it reduces the incidence of licking, scratching, or chewing.

Have you heard of cat huffing? No, it's not an illegal street drug gone feline. Cat huffing involves burying one's face into a cat's body (usually the neck or belly) and repeatedly inhaling the kitty scent. So far, there aren't any known side effects to cat huffing, although it can be highly tantalizing, like catnip for people.
