ELT - Collins

Collins Peapod Readers: Off to a budding start with Cambridge English Qualifications It seems to me that we often fall into the trap of viewing readers as an added extra in English language teaching, when in fact readers can offer so much more and be an integral part of a young learner's English learning journey.

Collins ELT | English Language Teaching Blog

Readers can also provide essential practice and preparation for the Cambridge Young Learner (CYL) Starters and Movers qualifications. Success in these exams means understanding and being able to use an extensive number of vocabulary items and language structures in context, and to recognise and be able to talk about a number of different topics. Readers, such as the new Collins ELT primary Peapod series, offer a constant and consistent exposure to these which is crucial in order to produce ...
