Root Of All Evil

Before anyone can remove or move past their issues of envy, we have to consider what the root of it is. In almost every case, envy arises when we are experiencing dissatisfaction in our own lives. It's when we so badly desire and yearn for success, connection or affection from others, and we don't get it.

across a research study the other day linking envy with sabotaging behavior at work. You wouldn't think business researchers were so interested in such catty workplace predicaments, but apparently our inner lives have a lot to do with productivity.

Calling Of All Evil

The Root of Envy Envy can be difficult to sit with. It's an uncomfortable feeling—one that can surface at different times and for different reasons. And for many of us, though we may recognize it when it pops up, envy isn't something that's easy to get past.
