The manual printing date, which indicates the manual's current edition, changes when a new edition is printed. Minor corrections and updates that are incorporated at reprint do not cause the date to change. Update packages may be issued between editions and contain additional and/or replacement pages to be merged into the manual by the user.

HFSS v9

The modeling results also show a stratified flow of the two fluid streams downstream of the junction, where the recycled gas tends to stay at the top part of the pipe and the light gas oil tends to remain at the bottom part, even after ten pipe diameters. However, the maximum temperature difference is only 209°F at x = 10 D. References
