Past Simple and Past Continuous Exercise 1

The past continuous describes a longer action or situation and the past simple describes a shorter action or event. When I met Susan she was having a drink at a terrace with a friend. We didn't go out because it was raining. The short action in past simple often interrupts the longer action in past continuous. He was playing football when he broke her arm. When I went to bed, it was raining.

The past continuous tense is also used to describe the background when we are narrating a story. It was a lovely morning. Matthew got out of bed and opened his bedroom window. The sun was shining and some birds were chirping in the trees. The past continuous and the past simple are often used together when we talk about an action already in progress while a short action comes in the middle of it. Compare these two sentences:
