The term special education refers to specially designed instruction, at no cost to the parents (FAPE), to meet the unique needs of a child with a disability, including instruction conducted in the classroom and instruction in physical education. The specially-designed program will be outlined in the child's Individual Education Program/Plan . Therefore, physical education services, specially designed if necessary, must be made available to every child with a disability receiving FAPE.

Physical Education for Special Needs Students

1. Physical education must be made available equally to children with disabilities and children without disabilities. 2.
