First on our list of fantasy books with enemies to lovers romances is To Kill a Kingdom. A dark retelling of The Little Mermaid, this fantasy novel enthralled readers with its anti-hero main characters and incredible ability to immerse them in its world. Neither Lira nor Elian are heroes. In fact, readers often describe them as ruthless and twisted.

Lucy and Joshua are the ultimate enemies, trapped in a shared office and battling it out for promotion. Sally Thorne does a masterful job of slowly developing their ugly competitiveness into attraction and then love. This combines both of my favorites of slow burn romance and enemies-to-lovers and is a must read for all fans of the trope.
