This is essentially the modern view of science, and it should be emphasized that it occurs only in Western civilization. It is probably this attitude that permitted the West to surpass the East, after centuries of inferiority, in the exploitation of the physical world. The Hermetic tradition also had more specific effects.

The modern world would not be modern at all without the understandings and technology enabled by science. Science affects us all, every day of the year. To make it clear how deeply science is interwoven with our lives, just try imagining a day without scientific progress. Just for starters, without modern science, there would be:
