Both Heaney and Clarke use poetry to express their concerns or beliefs about nature. I believe Gillian Clarke's intentions are to write poetry about her views, using metaphors to make the reader think and that Heaney, also, uses nature to express his views, only more directly and his messages are clearer, and more straightforward to the reader.

2004 Anthology. The first AQA Anthology was a collection of poems and short texts. The anthology was split into several sections covering poems from other cultures, the poetry of Seamus Heaney, Gillian Clarke, Carol Ann Duffy and Simon Armitage, and a bank of pre-1914 poems. There was also a section of prose pieces, which could have been studied in schools which had chosen not to study a ...
