Fans are textual poachers as they go on the “land” of the writer and “poach” or take only what they want, not necessarily what the writer may have intended. These fans then get to keep their “poached” material, although this material has little economic value, it contains its own expressive culture.

Synopsis. Get a life,' William Shatner told Star Trek fans. Yet, as Textual Poachers argues, fans already have a life,' a complex subculture which draws its resources from commercial culture while also reworking them to serve alternative interests. Rejecting stereotypes of fans as cultural dupes, social misfits, and mindless consumers, Jenkins represents media fans as active producers and skilled manipulators of program meanings, as nomadic poachers constructing their own culture from ...
