The Boxer is a powerful YA contemporary about seventeen-year-old Sunny, who starts learning to box after a racist attack. Set in Bristol, the narrative cuts between the past, in the days immediately preceding and following the attack, and the present, where Sunny is taking part in his first fight after months of training with his new mentor, Shobu.

The Boxer by Nikesh Shukla - Goodreads

The Boxer's official classification in the "Working Group" of dogs is a natural. His keenest sense, that of hearing, makes him an instinctive guard dog, always alert. Although always vigilant, the Boxer is not a nervous breed, and will not bark without cause. He has judgment, and an uncanny sense of distinguishing between friend and intruder.
