Luckily, these two CPA review courses don't have that problem. Both Roger CPA Review and Wiley CPAexcel have roughly the same price tag for their full courses: just under $3,000 before discounts. These are pretty expensive courses, but bear in mind that they are the best courses currently on offer from either company.

I bought the four Wiley textbooks from a friend. Using my tried-and-true method of read every word and work every problem, I passed all sections of the CPA exam on the first try. While studying REG, I contacted my friend and I asked if she received any flashcards (because of the volume of memorization in that section).
