Wolverine Origin Paul Jenkins

The origin of Wolverine was elusive for many years. While fans got a taste with the excellent Weapon X storyline, it was still a mystery as to where Logan came from and how his animalistic tendencies developed. With Origin, Jenkins and Kubert do a great job giving our favourite mutant a backstory, full of tragedy and heartbreak.

Even then, Wolverine's past remained an enigma – even to Logan himself. Having lost his memory long ago, Logan's past remained one of Marvel's greatest mysteries, until the creative team of Paul Jenkins, Joe Quesada, Bill Jemas, and Andy Kubert told the official version of Wolverine's early years in the acclaimed 2001 miniseries Origin.

Wolverine Revealed His Secret Origin YEARS Before Marvel

Paul Jenkins, as he has proven with his work on Spider-Man, is a superb writer, so for the life of me I can't figure out how "Origin" wound up with such a so-so story. It felt like he was playing a "fill in the blank" game when he, Joe Quesada and (ugh) Bill Jemas put the story together.
