By raising his hands at the end of worship in today's church, the minister conveys that he is touching the entire assembly as he speaks the word of blessing. Of course, the laying on of hands goes back to a period far earlier than the first few centuries a.d. God ordained the practice when priests and kings were anointed with oil (Ex. 28:41; 1 Sam. 16:1-13).

Genuine worship also requires a heart of faith and a disposition of obedience to God. It would be difficult for unbelievers to worship the Lord, because they don't have the Holy Spirit and cannot understand spiritual things (1 Cor. 2:14). Nor does God find worship acceptable from believers who cling unrepentantly to sin .

Heart of Worship - In Touch Ministries

Healing virtue flows mightly from Him and in great abundance. Whether you are in need of a healing yourself or desire to minister God's healing power to the sick, you need to learn one thing and one thing only: it is the touch of Jesus that heals the sick. Healing is not found in the touch of a man or a woman.
